As a result of games rolled in the Tri-City Bowling league last week, six teams are tied for third place in the standing, a situation that has never prevailed before in the history of bowling in the tri-cities. It will only mean a harder fight next week to break the tie.

The Edgewood team retained the lead by taking two out of three from the FitzGibbons five at Hastings alleys. The Moline boys gave the Islanders a merry chase and every game was closely contested. Carlson set a new single game record when he shot 253. The former mark of 249 was held by Art Salzmann. Vierlech was second with 226.

At the Harms alleys the Cubs took two out of three from the Harms five, losing the first game by six pins. Clemann's men wound up strong, however, shooting 912. At the Island City alleys the Outings of Davenport took two games from the Cross Country, who rolled below form. At the Blackhawk alleys in Davenport the Blackhaws lost two to the Martins. DAVENPORT'S BACKFIELD TO BE FEARED

WALTER KELLY.

"POOCH" KING.

Both Kelly and King, the two important cogs on the backfield of Coach Nixon's machine, will participate in tomorrow's game against Rock Island, and they are confronted with the big task of bolstering up the team in the absence of Captain Fort and Shuler. Both are veterans on the team, having played three years. It is possible that King may be held out.

FED BOSS SILENT ON CINCY CONFAB

Owner of Chicago Whales Admits His Conference With Herrmann, But That's All.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 5.—Secrecy of the darkest kind still shrouds the mission of Messrs. Charles Weeghman and Harry Sinclair in Cincinnati Wednesday. Both met Garry Herrmann, chairman of the national baseball commission, Weeghman admitted yesterday upon his return to Chicago, but further than to add that Charles P. Taft was absent from the conference the boss of the Whales refused to talk relative to what actually transpired.

"Too much talk followed the conference held between Federal club owners and the representatives of organized baseball last year," declared Weeghman upon his arrival here with William Walker, his business associate and brother-in-law in the North Side club. "Several important matters were thrashed out in Cincinnati Wednesday, but both before and after the conference those present took a terrible oath pledging absolute secrecy."

EAST AURORA HIGH ALSO CLAIMS TITLE

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 5.—The football eleven of East High School of Aurora, state champions of 1914 and so far undefeated this season, is seeking a game with some undefeated eleven for Saturday, Nov. 13. University High of Chicago is preferred.

ADDS TO RUMORS TEARNEY TO QUIT

J. T. Hayes to Represent Three-Eye Prexy at the San Francisco Meeting Tuesday.

ASPIRES TO CENTRAL LEAGUE?

Reported That Chicagoan Will Be Candidate at Session of Circuit Nominals in Evansville.

When the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues meets in San Francisco next Tuesday, James T. Hayes of Davenport will represent Al Tearney, president of the Three-Eye league. Tearney will not be present at the session.

This adds fuel to the flames of rumor that Tearney is to retire as chief of the Tri-City circuit and that he will be a candidate for head of the Central league when it meets in Evansville next Thursday.

A dispatch from Terre Haute, Ind., says:

"The announcement several weeks ago by the presidents of the Terre Haute and Evansville baseball clubs that their clubs would not remain in the Central league if Louis Holtbroer were reelected president has served to bring out a number of ardent candidates for the position. The annual meeting will be held at Evansville next Thursday."

"Al Tearney of Chicago, who has been at the head of the Three-Eye league, is reported to be a candidate, and President Beggs of Terre Haute is very much inclined his way, especially if President Holtbroer of the Evansville club declines to be a candidate, which he may do, because he would have to relinquish his holdings in the club to be league president. M. H. Sexton of Rock Island, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball clubs; William Earle, scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates; Emerson Dickerson, Grand Rapids sporting editor; Charles Frank, former president of the Southern Michigan State league and Robert Quinn, business manager of the Columbus, Ohio, club, are other candidates. The salary is $2,500."

Sad Tales of "Bust Ups." Chicago, Nov. 5.—Minor league mobs swarmed the local baseball rials yesterday and before hopping the special rattle which will transport them to San Francisco uncorked many a sad, sad story. The principal lament pertained to the bust-ups of 25 baseball circuits commonly styled "the small fry." That is what has happened to the national pastime all within one year.

When John Farrell, secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues, sidles up upon the rostrum at the opening of the annual minor league convulse in Frisco next Tuesday morning to read the annual blither, among other things he will inform the assembled magnates that old hard times, sure put a crimp in the game this season.

At Omaha last November prospecting at length on the wave of prosperity attending 47 bush and big minor leagues. Since then, however, there has been a decrease of over 50 per cent in the total enrollment, the slump being directly traceable to several conditions.

Party On Special.

More than forty baseball men from various sections of the country occupied space on the minor league special which steamed out of the Northwestern terminal at 10 o'clock last night bound for the land of sunshine. They dropped into town one by one during the day and were busy until train time hobnobbing with the major league powers making Chicago their headquarters.

When names were counted at the depot last night those present were: John H. Farrell, Auburn, N. Y., secretary of the National Association and president of the New York State league; M. H. Sexton, chairman of the National Association, Rock Island, Ill.; J. T. Hayes of Davenport, Iowa, representing Al H. Tearney, president of the Three-Eye league; R. H. Baugh, president of the Southern Association; President Smith of the Birmingham club, Southern Association; M. E. Justice, president of the Central Association; Charles Mall, representing the Northern league; Tim Burnane, president of the New England league; Eddie Barrow, president International league; Thomas M. Charles Carr and Herbert Goldsmith, representing sporting goods concerns.

AMATEUR TROTTER RACE TO MAY MACK

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—May Mack, winner of the amateur trot, the feature event of yesterday's harness meeting at the Panama-Pacific exposition, won the first heat handsily, broke in the second, but came back in good form in the third heat and carried off the San Francisco Driving club's prize of $2,000.

MONEY IS EVEN ON BIG GAME IN EAST

New York, Nov. 5.—From all indications Harvard and Princeton will enter their annual clash at Princeton on even terms so far as the betting is concerned. Betting began in New York yesterday at even money, with several big wagers reported placed around the Wall street district.

On straight dope the Tigers should be favored a little in the betting. But Princetonians have a wholesome respect for Eddie Hahn's right toe and are demanding even money and getting it.

Saturday undoubtedly will see the classic kicking of the season with Mahan on the one side and Eddie Driggs, supported by young Davy most a certain point better inside of 40 yards, and Driggs' punting, if he kicks true to the form he has so far displayed, will offset the all-around effectiveness of the Crimson leader.

DAVENPORT TEAM BADLY CRIPPLED

Patched Lineup Will Face Rock Island in Crucial Game at Island City Park Tomorrow.

PLAY IS TO START AT 2:30

Islanders Are Determined to Fight Hard and Will Give Nixon's Machine a Stiff Battle.

The second contest for the prep title of the tri-cities will be staged at Island City park tomorrow afternoon, when Coach Nixon's speedy Davenport eleven will invade Rock Island for a crack at the maroon and gold team. Although Davenport is conceded a victory through its superior showing this season, the game is attracting a great deal of interest and a large turnout of tri-city fans is looked for.

Moline goes to Rockford tomorrow to fight it out with the Furniture City eleven and the Rock Island-Davenport game will be the only one in the tri-cities. The game is scheduled to start promptly at 2:30 and special cars will be provided on the Watch Tower line. The usual admission price of 50 cents will be charged, as has been the practice in the past on tri-city games.

Keithly to Referee.

Keithly of Peoria, who refereed the Rock Island-Moline game last Saturday, has been secured to act in that capacity tomorrow. Mr. Keithly gave entire satisfaction in the Moline game as he was fair to both sides.

Adams of Moline will act as umpire, with Fisher of Davenport as head linesman. A section of the grandstand has been reserved for the Davenport delegation. The Davenport high school team has been on the road for the past three weeks, and home fans have not seen the team in action as much as they would have liked this season. For this reason a large attendance from Davenport is expected. Moline fans, too, are evincing interest in the coming tilt and the Plow City will not doubt be well represented on the side lines. It was announced today that Durling, fast end and star punter of the Rock Island team, would be in the lineup tomorrow. It was thought for a time that Durling would be unable to play because of parental objections, but his folks were prevailed upon to allow him to participate in the Davenport game at least. Hughes, who played such a steady game at the other end in Moline, will be back in the line and Dempsey will not be, because of his injured wrist.

Ackley, Whisler, Thomas and Morris will be used in the backfield with Johnny Robb at quarter. Captain Nichols and James will be seen at the tackle positions with Anderson and Kuehl at guards and Mercer at center.

Islanders Have a Chance.

Rock Island, however, is conceded a chance to hold Davenport to a low score. The lineup that will face Rock Island tomorrow will be badly crippled by the absence of Quarterback Shuler and Captain Fort, undoubtedly the two greatest stars on the Davenport eleven. Shuler is confined to his home with a severe attack of tonsillitis and Captain Kelly is suffering from a bad ankle. Both are expected to round into shape for the Des Moines game, however. Mackever will probably fill in at quarterback with Fennell in Fort's place at fullback. Davenport has not a great advantage over Rock Island in weight, the two teams being evenly matched in this respect at least.
